“Looking at the Scriptures through the Eyes of a First Century Jew”

What Yeshua said about his Purpose

Matthew 5:17 Do not suppose that I have any intention of doing away with the Torah or the Prophets. My purpose is rather to place them on a firmer footing by interpreting them correctly in terms of God's ultimate will as He originally intended for His commandments to be obeyed.

The Law of God, also known as the Torah, emanates from the abiding goodness of God's nature and thus stands forever, God being unchangeable. When we observe the Torah, it is a reflection of His Divine Nature resident within us.

Today's Torah Portion Deuteronomy 26:1 — 29:8

1. Deuteronomy 26:12 Is this tithe of every third year still in effect today? If so, who are the recipients today?
2. Deuteronomy 27:15 Cursed be the man that maketh any graven or molten image, an abomination unto Yahweh, the work of the hands of the craftsman, and putteth it in a secret place. And all the people shall answer and say, Amen.
 - What constitutes a (KJV) "graven or molten image"?
 - What are a couple of examples of things that are not?
 - Is the curse incurred for just making the (KJV) "graven or molten image" but not "setting it up in secret"?
 - What does "setting it up in secret" entail?
3. What are the two major textual criticism issues in Deuteronomy 32?
4. Deuteronomy 27:1-8 speaks of writing the entire Torah on great stones that have been plastered into a large wall. What is this about?

As you know, an aspect of our outreach is to new people coming into the Hebrew Roots walk. What I would like to do is have each family (we'll call this a peer review process) take a presentation given this year and form around 5 questions. I will collect these and create a "final exam" for the "What About Scriptures" and prepare it for publication at the Feast of Tabernacles, Season of our Joy, in Missouri this year.

I'm thinking the best way would be for me to assign each family a specific presentation. If for some reason a family cannot do theirs, then they can let me know and I will do it or another family can do it. A family could also volunteer for 2 if they so wanted.

Once I have the "final exam" completed, I'll make it available to each family in our congregation so they can make a determination of how ready they are to "give an account" on these basic foundational subjects.

Let me know what you guys think.
